

Peggy Lee Cooper

FINALLY a first album. You can be part of this glamorous adventure and help her !
Yes, Darling, you can.

They waited for years, but at last Peggy Lee Cooper and her crew have booked a recording studio and they will be releasing their first album in the Fall.

This is only possible if you help them. If you don't, they will have to sell everything they own, even the dog, to buy food and pay for the studio. No pressure.

Miss Cooper, whose career spans from the 18th Century 'till now, found home in the Belgian underground scene. She has a sultry and husky voice. A glamorous figure. She will sing anything from jazzy bluesy covers to her own material.

In a little under 10 years, she performed in most Belgian cabarets, at the National Theatre in Brussels, several festivals, tons of prestigious venues, Belgium's Got Talent, Karbon Kabaret with an audience of 20.000 people and live on National TV.
She also performed in France, Germany, England, Edinburgh Fringe, Switzerland, etc...

On the road to this worldwide success in Belgium, she met and worked with some amazing international artists such as Miss Dirty Martini, Kitten DeVille, Peekaboo Pointe, Tricity Vogue, NY legend Lydia Lunch or Belgian hit bands Cocaïne Piss and Sacha Toorop.

For this album, she managed to put together an A-Team of musical geniuses and misfits :
Emmanuel Delcourt, the Belgian Burt Bacharach.
Fräulein Lily Dahl, the she-wolf of knitting and bass guitar.
Grand Malade, mostly a moustache. But he also plays drums.
And Adrien Bégué. A frenchman with a saxophone. Yes. I know. It is very sexy.

If you wanna know more, please copy whatever's written hereunder in a strange and mysterious language. I think it's French. And paste it in your favorite translator.

If you already believe in that gore-geous creature's talent...
Well, make it rain, Darling !
